JAPANESE COMMUNIST PLOT.

RED PLAN TO UNDERMINE THE EMPIRE.

SECRET CONCLAVE UNDER GUISE OF COMPANY MEETING.

STARTLING REVELATIONS.

Details of the widespread Communist plot in Japan are now forthcoming upon the lifting of the news embargo which the Government enforced last month following the arrest of a number of Communists. An alarming state of affairs is disclosed, the Procurator General considering that the attempt to undermine the Empire from within was more serious than a threat of armed force from without.

The total arrests through the whole of Japan number about a thousand. The plot was hatched for the purpose of changing the social system of the Empire and for the distribution of inflammatory literature. The Communists held a secret conference in a snow-bound country under the guise of a meeting of company shareholders, their leaders having been trained in fighting methods by leaders of the Third Internationale.

The movement was highly organised by "cells," and students and college professors were among the sympathisers. Extremist organisations have been suppressed by the Government which is, accused of attempting to gain popularity owing to the difficult position confronting the coming Diet Session.

THIRD INTERNATIONALE TRAINING.

Tokyo, Apr. 10. Following the completion of the examination of the Communists arrested on the 15 of last month the Government has released the news embargo which has hitherto been enforced in Japan. The Procurator General considered that the "very predominant impression is that the whole affair is serious. In fact Japan is now confronted by an unusually grave national difficulty inasmuch as revolutionism is pretty well suffused." He added that the present attempt to undermine the foundation of the empire from within, which was influenced by radical ideas from alien people, was more serious than a threat of armed force from without.

The opinion is expressed in some quarters that the Court trial which will be held shortly in Tokyo, Osaka, Fukuoka or Sapporo will result in the proof that the Third Internationale supplied the funds, thus possibly leading to the strained relations between Japan and the Soviet.

Extremist Intrigue. According to a fifty-page official bulletin, the wholesale arrests followed the discovery of an extremist intrigue aiming at the establishment of a Communist association the purposes of which were to "alter fundamentally the social system of the Japanese Empire."

In addition, the Association was to be responsible for the distribution of inflammatory literature throughout the whole country at the time of the elections. "Several hundreds" are stated to have been arrested, of which 150 have already been prosecuted. It is expected that the total prosecutions will ultimately reach at least 300 as a result of the further arrests which the Court examinations will probably necessitate.

A Secret Conference. The bulletin describes how the secret conference of the Communists, held in a snow-bound locality under the guise of an electrical company's shareholders' meeting early in February, first raised the suspicions of the Police. Sufficient evidence to justify arrests was not forthcoming, however, until the elections, when inflammatory literature was broadcast.

It is stated that the Communist movement has been considerably strengthened since their return from the Soviet early last year. The bulletin adds that the "leaders have been trained in fighting methods by leaders of the Third Internationale" who started active propaganda whereas previously Communism in Japan was mainly passive.

Numerical Watchwords. The movement was highly organised with district and local "cells" and central commissaries etc. The "cells" established were factory, agricultural and general ones under the control of five local commissaries each maintaining his own press organ of activities assisted by students and professors organised into factions. The difficulties of tracking down the intriguers were considerably increased owing to the use of numerical watchwords for the interchange of important communications.

The opinion is expressed in some quarters that the Court trial which will be held shortly in Tokyo, Osaka, Fukuoka or Sapporo will result in the proof that the Third Internationale supplied the funds, thus possibly leading to the strained relations between Japan and the Soviet.

Organisations Dissolved. The Home Minister, in a communication to the Press, stated that the other two extremist organisations had been dissolved owing to the co-operation of Communists, though leaders of the Roneto party in a statement denying the accusation aver that the Government is merely attempting to gain popularity owing to the difficult position confronting the coming session of the Diet.

The same leaders contend that the suppression will not affect the influence to the contrary, the result of the reorganisation strengthening the party. Seiyukai leaders, however, hint of further repression as the Government will not be satisfied until Communism has been completely eradicated. The Adachi leader, discussing the suppression considers that the Government has acted rightly though it is mistaken in thinking that it will regain popularity by it. The hope is expressed that the three remaining proletarian parties will have healthy development now that the extremists have been eliminated.

Radical Professors. It is understood that the Government intends to dismiss certain professors from Universities and colleges owing to their radical sympathies and also to dissolve student's social study groups. It is officially stated that the extremists arrested in Tokyo last month numbered 400 of which 67 were prosecuted including two women. It is understood that the total arrests throughout the whole country number approximately a thousand. An assistant of the Tass News Agency has been arrested but no charge has been preferred.

Manchurian Issue. An important Conference of the General Staff was held regarding the measures to be taken in the case of military action necessitated by the situation in Manchuria. (Continued on Page 14.)

PLOT REVEALED IN INDIA.

SECRET SOCIETY OF BOLSHEVISTS.

CIPHER LIST OF VICTIMS FOR ASSASSINATION.

A WIDE CONSPIRACY.

Calcutta, Apr. 10. The trial has started here of the twenty Bengali youths who are charged with conspiracy to "deprive His Majesty of the Sovereignty of India and overthrow the Government of India."

Three of the youths are also charged with the unlawful possession of arms and ammunition, in pursuance of the general conspiracy. The prosecutor stated that a cipher list was found in a boarding house at Deoghar where these young men were arrested, this containing the names of notorious revolutionary murderers and the places of incidents connected with their crimes, which were used as passwords.

The cipher list also contained sixteen names of "victims" who were marked down for assassination. The conspiracy was widespread and the most important document found was a leaflet describing as the Articles of Association of a secret society "for the establishment of independent Federated States of India by organised, armed revolution."

The members of this Society were enjoined to engage in Bolshevik activities such as the secret assembling of men, arms and funds by force and, where necessary, by terrorism, the establishment of a labour and peasant organisation and also to spread Communist revolutionary propaganda for the encouragement of military training.—Reuter.

PLATINUM IN SIERRA LEONE.

MANY APPLICANTS FOR MINING RIGHTS.

London, Apr. 10. The Colonial Office states that the Government of Sierra Leone has received a considerable number of applications in connection with the discovery of platinum in that Colony. Prospecting rights have been granted to all suitable applicants, and the Government of the Colony hopes before long to be able to give a decision regarding the grants of exclusive prospecting licences, mining rights or mining leases.

The Sierra Leone Government considers, however, that it is desirable to announce that applications for exclusive prospecting licences have already been received in respect of practically the whole of the area specially suggested by the Director of Geological Survey as being worthy of investigation.—British Wireless.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

THREE CHINESE MEMBERS ARE ELECTED.

Shanghai, Apr. 11. At a meeting of representatives of the 60,000 Chinese ratepayers at the Chinese Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, Tau Yee-pei, Yuan Li-tung and Chao Chin-ching were elected to the seats on the Shanghai Municipal Council, while six other Chinese were elected members of various committees of the Council.

Tau Yee-pei is the manager of the Bank of China, Yuan Li-tung general manager of the Ningpo-Shanghai Steam Navigation Company, and Chao Chin-ching managing director of the Town Syndicate and a member of several important commercial and educational institutions.—Reuter.

POLL SENSATIONS IN AMERICA.

CANDIDATE CARRIED OFF BY ARMED MEN.

SECOND KIDNAPPED.

New York, Apr. 10. Lively scenes were witnessed at the primary elections in Chicago to select the party candidates for the various State and Federal offices for which the final elections will be in November, and also to choose the delegates to the National Party conventions for the selection of Presidential candidates in the summer.

Almost every policeman in the city, together with thousands of volunteers, is engaged in guarding the polls. The rival candidates for the Governorship of Illinois are Mr. Small, the present Governor, who is backed by Mayor Thompson and the Republican faction, and Senator Donohoe.

The election is quiet in most parts of the State but motor cars filled with detectives are patrolling the streets of Chicago to prevent any bombthrowing or shooting.

Alderman Haffa disappeared during the morning and it is believed that he has been kidnapped to prevent him from participating in the election.

Several men armed with pistols knocked Mr. R. H. Taylor, leader of the fifth ward, on the head and carried him off in a motor car.—Reuter's American Service.

GRAMOPHONE SHARES.

FUSION RUMOURS RESULT IN RISES.

London, Apr. 11. There is considerable excitement in the market of gramophone shares consequent upon the persistent rumours of a fusion between the American Victor Talking Machine Company with the British Columbia Gramophone and other gramophone companies. An instance of the excitement is provided by Columbia 10s, shares which at the beginning of the year were quoted under 47. Yesterday they reached 51 1/2.

The secretaries of the Gramophone and Columbia companies deny that they have ever heard of the suggestion of a fusion. Likewise cables from the New York indicate that the officials of the Victor concern are "equally ignorant." It is obvious, however, that the Stock Exchanges give credence to the rumours.—Reuter.

FURTHER YANGTSE INCIDENTS.

JARDINE AND B. AND S. TUGS FIRED AT.

ATTEMPT TO BOARD.

Hankow, Apr. 10. As a tug and lighter belonging to Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co. and one belonging to Messrs. Butterfield and Swire were proceeding to Changsha this morning, they were fired upon by soldiers from both banks of the river, at a spot about 25 miles above Hankow.

The soldiers made an attempt to board the vessels by means of junks, but were apparently unsuccessful.

The vessels returned to Hankow later in the day and made a report of the occurrence, as a result of which the Consul General will make a request to the Garrison Commander to take steps to enforce discipline.

HANKOW CONCESSION DISPUTE.

Agreement Between French and Chinese.

Hankow, Apr. 10. The Sino-French dispute was satisfactorily adjusted to-day after prolonged negotiations between the Consul and the Foreign Minister.

The French authorities, while reiterating their determination not to budge from their decision in regard to ordinary political offenders, agreed for the future to hand over Communists and other dangerous characters.

Regret was also expressed for the alleged discourtesies towards Foreign Office officials during recent calls at the French Consulate.—Reuter.

EXPRESSION OF REGRET.

Referring to the accounts, you will observe that the profit for the year under review amounted to £220,995.59 as against £194,708.56 for the preceding year, and is arrived at after deducting £154,238.64 for depreciation; £29,011 for the payment to the Government in respect of Royalties, in accordance with the terms of the franchise under which we operate; £5,527.85 for writing off part of the preliminary expenses; and £1,634.95 for writing off bad debts.

Items Explained.

Depreciation is heavier this year by £23,185.59—in which relation shareholders will readily understand that the additions made to capital plant must necessarily result in an increased sum for depreciation in order to safeguard your investment.

As regards the Royalties, you will observe that the payment for the year 1927 is $5,077 in excess of that for the previous year, and it is well to bear in mind that this becomes an ever-increasing sum in proportion to the number of new connections made.

Bad debts, you will observe, have decreased by $4,051.23 and represent less than one half per cent. on the gross turnover. This satisfactory state of affairs is due principally to the introduction of the system of Deposit Accounts to which I referred when I addressed you at the last annual general meeting, and, as I then prognosticated, has since in effect minimised to a great extent the risk of losses being sustained from this source.

Improved Service.

During the year under review, the improvement in the telephone service has not only been maintained, but has also been considerably extended—this being due to the reconstruction of a material portion of our outside plant, whereby service to subscribers is gradually being converted to direct underground cable circuits instead of the former overhead lines. A considerable portion of this work remains to be done, and in order to effectually carry out extensive plant rearrangements with a minimum of inconvenience to subscribers, a certain amount of de-

FREETHINKERS' CONGRESS MERELY A NAME.

Warsaw, Apr. 10. The political police at Lodz have closed down the so-called Freethinkers' Congress which proved in reality to be a Communist gathering attended by Communist deputies, well known Communists who had been hiding from the authorities and also various people who have not been identified but who are believed to be Soviet emissaries.

A number of arrests have been made and it is stated that important documents have been seized.—Reuter.

SOLOMON ISLANDS MURDERS.

NEW AUTOMATIC SYSTEM.

H.K. TELEPHONE CO. PLANS.

CONVERSION IN LESS THAN TWO YEARS.

IMPROVED SERVICE.

The Hongkong Telephone Co., Ltd., has laid before the Government a definite scheme whereby it is hoped that the whole telephone system will be converted to automatic working. This statement was made by Mr. J. Scott Harston, president at to-day's meeting of shareholders of the Company.

Mr. Harston further stated, in the course of his speech, that subscribers' lines had increased during the year by 711 exchange lines and 446 extension lines, and that in connexion with the reconstruction of the plant no fewer than 1,594,188 circuit miles of underground cable and 71,359 circuit miles of covered distribution cables had been laid during the twelve months.

Chairman's Speech.

The Secretary having read the notice convening the meeting, The Chairman said:—Gentlemen, The report of your Directors and statement of accounts for the financial year ended 31st December, 1927, having been in your hands for the prescribed period, I will, with your permission, follow the established practice and take them as read. The Auditors' Report is as follows:—

"We have examined the books, accounts and vouchers of the Company monthly for the year ended 31st December 1927, and have obtained all the information and explanations we have required. In our opinion the above balance sheet properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of affairs of the Hongkong Telephone Company Limited, as at 31st December 1927, according to the best of our information and explanations given to us and as shown by the books of the Company—Lowe Bingham and Matthews, Chartered Accountants, Auditors, Hongkong, 20th March 1928."

Referring to the accounts, you will observe that the profit for the year under review amounted to £220,995.59 as against £194,708.56 for the preceding year, and is arrived at after deducting £154,238.64 for depreciation; £29,011 for the payment to the Government in respect of Royalties, in accordance with the terms of the franchise under which we operate; £5,527.85 for writing off part of the preliminary expenses; and £1,634

"DAWN" APPROVED.

NEW YORKERS TO SEE CAVELL FILM.

New York, Apr. 10. The State Department of Education has approved the exhibition of the film "Dawn," except a few passages including the assembling of the firing squad and the scene depicting the shooting of the disobedient soldier. The owner of the rights has consented to the required cut although he objects to the elimination of the latter incident on the ground that it is a question of "history."—Reuter's American Service.

LETTER GOLF.

It's hard to make a 4AAA shoe fit a 6B foot, but on the letter golf links sizes don't count. Any SHOE fits any FOOT after three gentle tugs.

S	H	O	E
F	O	O	T

1—The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and do it in par, a given number of strokes. Thus to change COW TO HEN, in three strokes, COW, HOW, HEW, HEN.
2—You can change only one letter at a time.
3—You must have a complete word, of common usage, for each jump. Slang words and abbreviations don't count.
4—The order of letters cannot be changed.
One solution is printed on another page of this issue.

SERVANTS COMPLAIN.

SOLICITOR GIVEN WRONG VIEW OF CASE.

Nine servants, including an amah, who until recently comprised the staff of St. Francis Hotel, appeared before Mr. R. E. Lindsell at the Central Police Court this morning in connexion with a claim for wages against Mrs. F. E. Cameron, the late proprietress of the establishment.

Two other claimants were not present in Court. His Worship:—I took the trouble to explain to you at the last hearing, that owing to a dispute between Mrs. Cameron who was summoned, and another party, your case would have to be put over. I told you that, but apparently one of you has engaged a solicitor, and told him that you were told to go away from Court without being given any explanation. It now appears that since the case first came on the defendant had left the Colony.

The position having been explained to the complainants, one of them said he had rightly understood that there was to be an adjournment until this morning, while the others denied that they ever gave a wrong version of the procedure to any solicitor.

His Worship said, in any case, one of the complainants, whoever he was, had engaged a solicitor, and his Worship had agreed with that solicitor to put the case over for a further week to see if anything could be done in the matter of the money.

This was in response to an appeal from all the nine complainants that the Court should assist them in recovering their wages. His Worship subsequently adding that he had not felt disposed to help them having regard to the false statement they had conveyed to the solicitor.

DOUBT REMOVED.

LOOTING BY FENG'S MEN PROVED.

Peking, Apr. 10. In view of the fact that certain religious newspapers in Britain have expressed doubts regarding the reports that Feng Yu-hsiang's soldiers have looted and destroyed mission property in Honan, expressing the opinion that at least Feng Yu-hsiang himself was not responsible, Reuter has made most careful enquiries of the Canadian Presbyterian missionaries who evacuated Honan last spring on the advance of Feng Yu-hsiang's forces.

They declare that though various rumours fought over territory wherein their stations were situated, namely northern Honan, north of the Yellow River, none of their property was molested till the Feng Yu-hsiangites re-entered Honan last year, since when all their missions have been looted except Wuan, which is the only station which has not fallen into Feng Yu-hsiang's hands.

The property looted includes four hospitals wherein years ago many of Feng Yu-hsiang's soldiers were nursed when sick and wounded; also several schools, churches and preaching chapels, and numbers of missionaries' residences.

Looting has been going on intermittently for several months, most of the houses having been stripped of their floor boards and their woodwork, some even of their roofs. At least one school and one residence were burned.

At the fine new hospital at Weihsien the soldiers wantonly destroyed thousands of dollars worth of medicines and other property which they could not carry off.

The missionaries further declare that Feng Yu-hsiang himself has several times visited these cities in the past few months, thus showing that he is in control of these regions and able to prevent the outrages if he so desired.—Reuter.

JAPANESE FLEET.

TIFFIN GIVEN BY LOCAL CONSUL GENERAL.

Three thousand men from the Japanese warships now in port were again landed in Kowloon during this morning and afternoon, some taking trips to Kwanti and Fanling and others going by motor buses to Castle Peak.

The Commander-in-Chief, Staff and Flag Officers were to-day the guests of the Japanese Consul General at tiffin, and this afternoon there was a reception by the local Japanese community at the Hongkong Hotel. Other officers went for car trips round the island.

While some of the men were out in the New Territories others attended a cinema performance at the Grand Theatre, and to-night about two hundred Japanese Chief and Petty Officers will be the guests of British naval men at the Royal Naval Cantonment.

The Commander-in-Chief and officers will have dinner with His Excellency the Governor at Government House to-night. To-day the battleships Fusu and Nagato were open to British visitors, a number of people taking the opportunity to inspect the warships.

In connexion with the "At Home" on the Nagato on Friday afternoon invitations to this function have been sent out by Admiral Hirohara Kato, Commander-in-Chief of the First Japanese Squadron.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT FRAUDS.

ADDITIONAL SENTENCES ON CHINESE CLERK.

Pau Tat-shing, the Education Department clerk who was recently sentenced to three months' hard labour for frauds in connexion with account books in Queen's College, was this morning brought from gaol and arraigned, before Major C. Willson at the Central Magistracy, on two further charges of a similar nature. These involved a sum of $233, and the offences were stated to have been committed on two different dates in 1926 and to have been discovered after a further investigation of the books.

In admitting these additional offences, defendant stated he had requested Mr. Leo d'Almada, his solicitor, to make a clean breast on his behalf, and to mention these sums amongst the others already recapitulated. Somewhat or other, Mr. d'Almada had not done so. He now asked for leniency.

His Worship said it would have made no difference if Mr. Leo d'Almada had mentioned these additional offences, as the sentences then deferred on those counts would now be given.

His Worship inflicted sentence of one month's hard labour on each of the two new charges, these to be additional to those others for which defendant is now serving a term.

Canadian missionary leaders, several of whom were formerly personal friends of Feng Yu-hsiang have sent a registered letter to Feng politely pointing out what is going on and requesting an investigation for the prevention of looting, but though the receipt for the letter has been received showing that Feng Yu-hsiang has received it he has not acknowledged the letter or taken any action.

The missionaries further declare that Feng Yu-hsiang himself has several times visited these cities in the past few months, thus showing that he is in control of these regions and able to prevent the outrages if he so desired.—Reuter.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1928.

PORTUGAL'S PART.

By his visit to Macao and his talk on the aims and objects of the University of Hongkong, Mr. W. W. Hornell, the distinguished Vice-Chancellor of that institution, has yet further strengthened the contact between the Portuguese Colony and Hongkong. As he rightly said, Hongkong and Macao are now closer together than they have ever been before, and we have not the slightest doubt that the happy relations now existing will grow into an even greater and firmer friendship in the days that lie ahead. Both Colonies have known evil days and have experienced considerable depression in recent times, but it is a happy circumstance that a new spirit of hopeful enterprise and progress is now manifesting itself in these outposts of two nations which can claim to have been pioneers of trade and Western culture in the Far East.

Britishers and Portuguese alike are apt to overlook the great debt which the world owes to the culture which emanated from Portugal, and Mr. Hornell struck a happy note when he laid emphasis on the fact that the history of Portugal is one of the epics of the world. In many spheres have the Portuguese contributed to world progress and advancement. It is well, therefore, that the memories of the past should be kept alive. For that reason, Mr. Hornell's suggestion of the establishment of a Chair of Portuguese Language and Culture in the Hongkong University is one which should make a strong appeal to those who wish those memories not to be lost sight of, as they are apt to do in this workaday world.

The attraction of the idea lies in the fact that, side by side with a study of these things, Portuguese students would be able to enjoy those other inestimable facilities which the University is able to offer in medicine and engineering and in other realms of professional and technical skill. As Mr. Hornell so well expressed it, national character is an abiding product of a nation's past, and the man or woman who would be a worthy citizen of the world must first be a loyal member of a nation.

The founding of such a Chair as Mr. Hornell suggests would be a happy way of yet further cementing the relations between Britain and her oldest ally, Portugal. It would also be a tribute to, and a recognition of, the worth of the Portuguese community of this Colony. In the past, we have had occasion more than once to stress the value to Hongkong of the members of this particular community. Law-abiding, conscientious in their work and always to be relied upon to give of their best in any movement for the common weal, the Portuguese in Hongkong are a credit to the nation to which they belong. They fill an important role in the commercial life of the Colony, and their leaders can always be looked to by the Government for sound and loyal advice. We believe, therefore, in every possible facility being given to their young people to equip themselves for the battle of life, and if, at the same time, they can be provided with the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the glories of their Motherland, then something will have been done to encourage the perpetuation of the rich culture and civilisation handed down from past generations.

Aerial Progress.

No more striking confirmation of the modern world's determination to progress and conquer could be forthcoming than the constant attempts at long-distance flights and the endeavours to set up new flying records, not merely for the purpose of breaking existing ones, but to demonstrate the possibilities of air travel. Almost daily there is some new feat which has a tremendous value to flying generally. Costes and Lebrun, the famous French airmen, have made a non-stop flight from Tokyo to Hanoi and have now reached Calcutta. This has particular significance for Hongkong at a time when it seems possible that the Colony will shortly be in the forefront of aerial development. At almost the same time there is Lieut. Hall's announcement that he will attempt a non-stop flight from Seattle to Tokyo at the end of this month, and, if successful, will continue round the world in an attempt to beat the existing record. Flying feats are becoming so numerous that there is a tendency to under-rate their value. It is certain that long non-stop flights will be the order of the day in the not too distant future and it is necessary before these services are available to the public for airmen to demonstrate that long non-stop flights can be accomplished with little if any risk. The airmen of all countries, who by their courage and determination are showing the world the capabilities of the aeroplane as a vehicle for fast passenger traffic over long distances, deserve the universal congratulation for pioneering which equals in importance that of the old-time explorers who made long hazardous sea voyages of discovery. This spirit is typical of the world to-day and the repetition of long distance flying feats should not be allowed to detract from the vital importance they will have in years to come when the results will be seen in vast air lines transporting the world's people to every corner of the globe with a speed and comfort never known in the days of old.

SHAMEEN WEDDING.

REV. H. A. WITTENBACH—MISS BLANCHETT.

Much interest was centred yesterday in the wedding, at Christ Church, Shameen, of the Rev. H. A. Wittenbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wittenbach, of Melbourne, Australia, and Miss Hannah Gertrude Blanchett, daughter of the Rev. C. I. and Mrs. Blanchett, of the Church Missionary Society, Canton. Both the bride and bridegroom are very well known in educational and missionary circles both in Hongkong and Canton.

The bride, who was given away by her mother, wore a white Canton crepe dress with Irish lace veil which was presented by Her Majesty the Queen to St. Michael's School and since used by St. Michael's School brides. Her bouquet was of Easter lilies and pink verbona, grown at home.

Miss J. L. Vincent, the bridesmaid, was attired in a dress of white Canton crepe and carried a bouquet of larkspur.

The bride's mother wore a dress of pale grey flowered silk.

The bride's father officiated and Mr. P. Sands, Assistant Secretary of the European Y.M.C.A. Hongkong, was best man.

There was a largely attended reception at the C.M.S. House, East Parade Ground, Canton, after the ceremony.

The honeymoon is to be spent at Shatin Gap, Hongkong, and Mr. and Mrs. Wittenbach will later return to Canton to Holy Trinity College.

DUTIABLE LIQUOR SEIZED.

TWO CHINESE BOATS ALSO CONFISCATED.

Orders for the confiscation of two lots of dutiable liquor seized on board native craft in the harbour during the past week were made by Mr. Schofield at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning.

In applying for the confiscation of 2 1/2 gallons, which were found on board a sampan in the typhoon shelter at Yau-mat, a Chinese detective said that he was on duty in a police boat when he noticed a sampan moving about in a suspicious manner. He called upon the master to stop, but the latter ignored the command and started to row in the direction of the shore, at the same time throwing two jars of wine into the harbour.

On boarding the sampan after the boatmen had reached the Praya wall and escaped ashore, the detective found two jars containing 2 1/2 gallons of dutiable Chinese spirit.

The same detective was on duty off Taikotai yesterday morning when he saw a dinghy being rowed at a rather fast speed. The detective shouted at the men on board, but, after discarding three jars of wine, they rowed ashore and escaped.

In both cases, his Worship ordered the wine and the boats to be confiscated.

BATHING SCARE.

CHINESE BOY'S LUCKY RESCUE.

A report of a bathing accident reached the police yesterday from Kennedy Town, where a Chinese boy was rescued and sent to the Government Civil Hospital suffering from the effects of over-immersion.

The boy, like hundreds of others, took to swimming during the last two days when a sudden rise in temperature made conditions ideal for bathing. He got out of his depth, however, and was fortunate in being near a number of his schoolmates, who rescued him.

The Very Idea!

In a naval periodical which came to our notice recently we found particulars of a serious warning to U.S.A. in regard to the design and construction of their two dozen larger and better cruisers. Our cousins were advised to take note of the awful calamity which happened to us when our designers drew plans for otherwise fine craft, in which, however, there was insufficient room for the drum, and the band, therefore, lost a tremendous amount of prestige. We have not seen a reply from U.S.A., but it occurs to us that it may well partake of the reminder that across the Atlantic they have inventors who are quite capable of bringing forth plans for the folding up of a drum. And so we breathe again.

He: May I have the next dance?

She: But I don't know you.

He: Then perhaps we'd better sit one out first.

Another word came into court recently—this time before Mr. Justice Tomlinson, who had to be assured as to the status of "biographical." It is, indeed, vouchered for in O.E.D. by no less authorities than "Blackwood" and the "Athenaeum." But might it not have been presumed? Obviously every "er" implies an "ee" as a man implies his shadow.

A sneeze, so powerful that it threw a man out of the window of a street car, is another record claimed by sunny California. It put R. W. French, the victim, in Berkeley General Hospital, with a sprained back.

When he came to in the hospital, French told about his experience. He felt the sneeze coming and tried to hold it back, so that when it broke away from his hold he was thrown head first through the window. "After this sneezing will have its own way with me wherever I happen to be," was his parting shot.

"My husband lost his position."

"Oh, not really."

"Yes, he isn't my husband any more."

Agha Faoha, 50-year-old peasant in a Moslem town, is the proud possessor of seven wives and 23 children. Agha's family is ranked with the largest in the world. The new Moslem law, however, will cast a dark cloud over his pride as father and husband, for it permits him only four wives. He will be forced to divorce the last three of his wives, the youngest and best looking.

This is the usual batch of Leap-Year babies (including several sets of twins) who are to be congratulated or commiserated according to the point of view. On the one hand, a quarter of a birthday a year is a meagre allowance, and a substituted birthday, on the "R. L. S." principle, is not quite the same thing. The artificial sort is never so good, either in birthdays or teeth. Yet it must be a certain consolation (though rather to the grown-up than to the child) to have a personal joke which never grows out of date. To be, like Gilbert's hero, "just a little boy of five" at twenty-one, must give some satisfaction to the arithmetician; and may count an extenuating circumstance in the case of ladies who equivocate with the Census (if ladies are sensitive about age nowadays). Even the Prime Minister, when he spoke to the men of Worcester recently, recalled that it was his "fifth birthday as a Member of Parliament."

SALE OF BARBER SHOP.

JAPANESE WIDOW SUES MAN AND WIFE.

DOMINATING WOMAN.

Before Mr. Justice Wood, in the Summary Court this morning, Mrs. L. R. Andrews alleged that a woman defendant was, for all practical purposes, a money-lender and made a habit of retaining notes on repayment of loans by saying that she had lost them. The action being tried was between Japanese parties, arising out of the sale of a business.

The plaintiff was Mrs. Masako Hayashida, widow, of 47, Praya East, Wanchai; whilst the defendant, who was husband and wife, were Mr. Shingiro Nanazawa, trading as the Yokohama Barber Shop, of 19, Praya East, Wanchai, and Mrs. Fujii Nanazawa, otherwise Fujii Arima, trading as the Chikori Eating House, of 19, Praya East, Wanchai.

The plaintiff claimed $800 being the balance of purchase money due under an agreement for the sale by the plaintiff to the defendants of the plaintiff's business known as the Yokohama Barber Shop, of 19, Praya East, Wanchai.

Mr. L. R. Andrews was for the plaintiff, and the defendants were represented by Mr. M. K. Lo.

Mr. Andrews said he received a letter from Mr. Lo intimating the defence, in which it was stated that the shop was bought by the husband only, and not by his wife as well.

His Lordship asked if that meant that judgment could be entered against the husband and not the wife.

Mr. Lo said it did not make much difference either way, as the only person who appeared to have money was the wife, and, if judgment were entered against her husband, she would pay.

Borrowed $700.

In outlining the circumstances, Mr. Andrews said the plaintiff and her husband acquired the shop in 1924 and carried on the business until her husband died in 1925. In order to purchase the house, the plaintiff had not sufficient money of her own, so she borrowed the sum of $700 from the second defendant, and that amount was connected with the action. The case for the plaintiff was that the $700 was duly repaid, but the note, which was given by the plaintiff as security, was never returned. They would call evidence to show that the second defendant was, for all practical purposes, a money-lender and it was a habit of hers to retain a note on repayment of a loan, and say she had lost it.

Continuing, Mr. Andrews said that on May 18th, last year, the plaintiff sold her business to both the defendants for $2,800. She received $100 from the husband and $1,000 from the wife, making $1,100 in all. It was arranged that as the plaintiff was already indebted to the wife for $900 incurred during her husband's illness that amount should be set off, thus leaving a balance of $800.

It was then arranged that both the defendants should give to the plaintiff a promissory note for $800. The husband signed his own name and also that of his wife, while the latter imprinted her thumb-mark on it. It was then handed to the plaintiff. At the request of the defendants, the plaintiff wrote a document confirming the sale.

Dominating Woman.

That document was written at the dictation of the defendants, and it stated that the business was sold to the husband only, although in fact, added Mr. Andrews, it was sold to both. He continued that the woman defendant was rather a dominating personality and the plaintiff had done just what she said. The sale was concluded on May 20th.

On the same day, the plaintiff went to see a friend to whom she owed $250, showed her the note and asked her to collect that amount from the defendants, which the friend agreed to do. The plaintiff decided to return to Japan and book her passage on the following day, and among those who gathered to bid her farewell was a third party who was shown the note and who agreed to collect the money when it became due on June 30.

Note Returned.

This came to the knowledge of the woman defendant, continued Mr. Andrews, who told the plaintiff that she (defendant) did not like the way the plaintiff was handling the note round. She asked the plaintiff to trust her (defendant) and suggested that the note should be returned to the first defendant. This the plaintiff agreed to do and gave authority for the note to be returned.

Therefore, concluded Mr. Andrews, there was no written evidence, but they had a good deal of oral evidence.

His Lordship asked Mr. Andrews whether he ought to have

SEQUEL TO MOTOR ACCIDENT.

NAVAL STOKER CHARGED IN COURT.

AN ALIBI PLEADED.

Stoker Jahagan, of H.M.S. Hawkins, appeared before Mr. R. E. Lindsell, this morning, charged with driving motor car No. 190 without an appropriate driver's licence, and, alternatively, with attempting to drive the car without such a licence.

Mr. H. C. Macnamara, of Messrs. Deacons, appeared for the defendant, and Mr. H. Lo informed his Worship that he appeared on behalf of the owner of the car, to prosecute.

His Worship pointed out that Mr. Lo could not appear for a prosecution which was taken up by the Traffic Department.

Mr. Lo then indicated that he would prosecute on behalf of the driver of the car, on a charge of assault.

Wanted to Take Charge.

Outlining the circumstances leading to the charges, Mr. Lo said the defendant and three other sailors were being driven along Queen's Road East on the morning of April 8th. Near the Wanchai Post Office, the sailors wanted to take the wheel. On the driver refusing, he was assaulted. In the meantime, the car was stopped and the chauffeur managed to get out and run to the No. 2 Police Station to make a report. On his way back, he saw the defendant driving the car and actually witnessed it being driven into a stone pillar.

Continuing Mr. Lo said the two sailors attempted to run away after the accident, but they were followed by the chauffeur, who eventually got the assistance of an Indian policeman. The sailors lodged up and down different streets but were finally caught hiding in a lane at the back of a Chinese house.

The chauffeur, in the witness box, substantiated Mr. Lo's opening and added that when the accident occurred the car was travelling at over 20 miles per hour.

World's Record?

In answer to Mr. Macnamara, witness said it took him about four minutes to run from Lun Fat Street to the No. 2 Police Station.

Mr. Lindsell remarked that this must be a world's record, but on being told by the police that the distance was only about half-a-mile, corrected himself by saying "Not very fast for half-a-mile, but very fast for a chauffeur."

Mr. Macnamara put it to the witness that he never saw the accident at all. He also said the witness found his car wrecked on returning from the Police Station and it was then that he looked around and arrested the sailors eventually.

Witness maintained that he saw the accident.

Mr. Macnamara then indicated that he would put his client and another sailor in the witness-box to say that they never hired defendant's car on the day in question.

His Worship remarked that in that case he would have to adjourn the case until Saturday morning at 11 a.m.

OPIUM SMUGGLERS FINED.

THIS MORNING'S COURT CASES.

A number of opium-smugglers, whose arrest on the waterfront yesterday is reported elsewhere in this issue, were brought up before Mr. R. E. Lindsell this morning and charged with the possession of illicit opium.

In the case of a passenger who landed from the Kinsan, and of the two coolies who handled the luggage in which the narcotics were discovered, a revenue officer applied for permission to withdraw the charge against the two coolies. This was granted. The charge against the passenger was then proceeded with, and the man was found guilty. A fine of $4,000, or eight months' hard labour, was imposed.

Two other Chinese were fined $3,000 each, or six months' hard labour, while a third man was fined a smaller amount.

sued on the note, saying that the note was accepted as part payment of the sum due on the sale of the business.

Mr. Andrews replied that the note was surrendered and destroyed, and therefore the original debt survived.

The case was adjourned until Monday.

MARSHAL LI TO RETURN.

MAY LEAVE IN NEXT FEW DAYS.

PLANS DEVELOP FOR THE COMING CAMPAIGN.

CHIANG OPTIMISTIC.

According to Chinese cable advice from Shanghai, Marshal Li Chai-sum, Chief of Staff to Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, will not go to Nanking following his return to Shanghai from Hangchow, but will return to Canton during the next three or four days.

Defects Denied.

In view of the many rumours prevailing in Nanking of how the Kuomintang forces were utterly defeated and how the Fengtien forces had launched one successful attack after another, the Nanking Nationalist Military Council has instructed the garrison troops and Police headquarters in Nanking and Shanghai to issue notifications to inform the people that such rumours are entirely groundless. The edict adds that one of the rumours went as far as to say that the present headquarters of the Nationalist Troops, Hsuehchow, was captured by the Northerners, and this the Military Council described as ridiculous.

The National Council in Nanking has sent messages to the Governors in Anhwei and Kiangsi ordering that from each of the two provinces 30,000 and 4,000 shekhs (Chinese measurement) of rice respectively should be sent to the front within the coming three months.

War Movements.

During the past few days the Nationalist military leaders in Hunan and Hupeh have had a busy time mobilising troops and attending military conference concerning the Northern campaign.

The military conference called at Hankow by General Li Tsung-jen on Monday was attended by Generals Hu Chung-hai, Hsia Hui, Tao Kwan and several others. Immediately after the meeting the whole of the 3rd Division of General Li Tsung-jen's Army left Hankow for the front to join the major army against the Fengtien forces.

General Cheng Chien, the Nationalist leader now ruling Hunan, has ordered General Liu Feng-chi and other military leaders to concentrate troops at Yochow, Hunan, on the 10th instant ready to move up from Yochow to join in the Northern Expedition.

Chiang Kai-shek's Order.

In the name of Chairman to the Nanking Military Council, Marshal Chiang Kai-shek has ordered the appointment of General Li Tsung-jen as Chief Commander of the 4th Nationalist Army Corps directing the Hunan and Hupeh troops to meet the Fengtien armies on the Peking-Hankow line.

According to recent telegrams from the North, it appears that after all the defeated "Ironsides" troops, which left Canton recently for the North to join Chiang Kai-shek's regime, may also take an active part in the coming Northern

SCANDALOUS CASE IN PEKING.

UNJUST DISMISSAL OF A COLLEGE PROFESSOR.

LENGTHY SERVICE.

Peking, Apr. 4. Much indignation has been aroused in all circles here by the dismissal of Professor William Price from the Customs College after 15 years' service, on one month's notice, without compensation, other than a complimentary expression of regret. Professor Price for the previous 15 years had been head of the Thomas Hanbury School in Shanghai and thus has a big following of loyal Chinese pupils, who have passed through his hands in the last 30 years.

The alleged reason for his dismissal is conformity with Marshal Chang Tso-lin's economy programme. But since the school is maintained by a Customs grant, the reduction of expenses saves the Government nothing. The real reason is that under the Feng Yushiang regime here the student body and Chinese faculty were saturated with radicalism, with which Professor Price was not sympathetic.

History Revisited. The Chinese head of the College last autumn was dismissed under suspicion of correspondence with Marshal Feng, but has now been reinstated by Liang Shih-yi, because he is related to the latter by marriage. The return of the old President of the College was marked by student rejoicings and publication of a most anti-foreign number of the school journal, after which the dismissal of Professor Price was announced.

This scandal revives the forgotten dismissal of Professor Brandt from the Government Russian Language School after 22 years of service, in November, 1924, when Dr. C. T. Wang appointed Hsu Chien head of the school to please Karakhan, the Bolshevik Ambassador. The present dismissal of Professor Price is put in the same category by the whole foreign community and by scores of influential Chinese; so that Liang Shih-yi is much embarrassed by charges of supporting Feng Yushiang's agent in what promises to be a cause celebre.—N. C. Daily News.

expedition, as a Nanking despatch has it that General Mow Pei-nam, now the Commander-in-Chief of the "Ironsides" is reported to have placed the main body of his troops on the first defensive line of the Kuomintang, about forty miles from the defenses of the enemy. General Hsieh Yo, the second in command of the "Ironsides" arrived at Hsuehchow on the same day to receive instructions from Chiang Kai-shek.

Chiang Optimistic. The latest news from Hsuehchow concerning the movement of the Commander-in-Chief of the Kuomintang, Chiang Kai-shek, is that the latter is very optimistic regarding the outcome of his campaign.

A large number of officials of the Nanking Political Department have arrived at Hsuehchow and now left for the front, at which considerable propaganda work will have to be done before the real hostilities commence.

Hsuehchow is plastered with the slogan, written on clothes and papers, "Capture Peking before the Dragon Boat Festival." The latter will be celebrated in about two and a half months' time.

GENEROUS GIFT TO UNIVERSITY.

ALLOCATION OF BIG SUM APPROVED.

CHAIR OF BIOLOGY.

The authorities of the Hongkong University have decided that the sum of $50,000 recently contributed by Mr. Kwok Siu-lau is to be set aside to accumulate at compound interest in order to provide for the establishment of a Chair of Biology at the University. This decision has been approved by the donor, who has made a further contribution of $1,000 towards the proposed School of Chinese. The correspondence which has passed on the subject is as follows:

Allocation Approved.

Hongkong, 10th April, 1928. His Excellency, The Chancellor of the University of Hongkong,

Your Excellency, I understand that Your Excellency is now hoping that money may be raised for the establishment of a Chinese School in the University of Hongkong.

This is an object that appeals strongly to me. I have recently contributed $50,000 to the University to be devoted to such purposes connected therewith as Your Excellency may think best. The Vice-Chancellor has informed me that Your Excellency has decided to put the $50,000 aside to accumulate, with its interest, with a view to the subsequent establishment of a Chair of Biology.

Your Excellency's decision in this matter meets with my entire approval, but I feel that I must make a small additional contribution of $1,000 towards the proposed University School of Chinese. Accordingly, I enclose a cheque for $1,000 and in the sincere hope that the money which is needed for the commendable object now in view will be forthcoming.

I beg to subscribe myself, Your Excellency's Obedient Servant,

(Sd.) KWOK SIU LAU.

His Excellency's Thanks.

11th April, 1928.

Dear Mr. Kwok Siu-lau, Very many thanks for your letter of the 10th April. I am glad to see your approval of the decision to set aside your generous contribution of $50,000 to accumulate at compound interest in order to provide for the future establishment of a Chair of Biology at the Hongkong University.

It is also a great pleasure to me to see that you are in full sympathy with the appeal now being made for funds in order to establish permanently a Chinese School in the University of Hongkong. I am grateful to you for the cheque of $1,000 which you enclose as a contribution to that fund, and I share your hope that the money which is needed for this commendable object will speedily be forthcoming. After all, if a thousand firms or individuals in this Colony followed your good example, the full sum necessary for establishing and endowing such a School would be obtained. I am,

Yours sincerely, Mr. Kwok Siu-lau, 49, Robinson Road. (Sd.) C. C. CLEMENT.

MACAO RACES.

SEVENTH EXTRA MEETING.

[By "Rambler"]

Unusual interest is being centred in the Seventh Extra Race Meeting which is being held at Macao next Sunday, the 15th April. Given good weather, the facilities offered for taking racers over to Macao should be taxed to the utmost. With their usual unfailing attention, the Hongkong, Canton & Macao Steamship Co. are preparing for a record number of trippers by putting the s.s. Taisan on the run. This will assure a fast and comfortable passage at the convenient price of $5 for the return trip.

The International Race & Recreation Club's Committee have made arrangements with the Bus Company for the hire of a number of buses which will meet the steamer at the Macao wharf on arrival. These buses will be specially reserved for the convenience of racers who will be quickly conveyed direct to the racecourse for a minimum fare. The usual number of hired motor cars will be placed by the Committee of the Race Club at the disposal of the Hongkong officials, owners and jockeys, and in this connection as only a limited number of cars have been engaged the Race Club Committee would be grateful if the friends of the above will make their own arrangements regarding transportation to and from the racecourse.

Quite a number of alterations have been effected at the racecourse since my last visit, which I have no doubt will be duly appreciated by those who will receive the benefits therefrom.

With their usual generosity, the officials have decided to reduce the percentage for Cash Sweeps from 30% to 20% and in the Place Pari-Mutuel third money will be paid in a field of six starters.

Up to the present, a Racing Committee of Hongkong enthusiasts have occasionally assisted the Macao Committee. This has now been dispensed with and for the future a number of Hongkong and Macao gentlemen will act as Stewards and will be responsible for the conduct of the meeting.

I am pleased to hear that Mr. C.S.M. Alves has been appointed the Official Handicapper of the Club. This should tend to bring the racing more in line with that which now exists at Happy Valley since the advent of Mr. Alves. I am of the opinion that it would be hard to find anyone more fitted for these onerous duties.

The next meeting in every respect promises to be an unequalled success principally on account of the keenness shown by a number of Hongkong owners who have entered their ponies for the forthcoming meeting. This should certainly indicate that prosperous times are in store for this popular little racecourse and I sincerely hope that strong support will continue to be received from Hongkong owners thereby assuring the success of future meetings.

Full training particulars are not yet to hand but I hope to have a detailed list of likely starters with their training times in Friday's Telegraph. My selections will appear on Saturday.

TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP TUSSE.

JAPANESE PAIR NEARLY DEFEAT HOLDERS.

There was a hard tussle yesterday in the lawn tennis Open Championship Doubles when the holders, Messrs. H. D. and S. A. Rumjahn, narrowly escaped defeat at the hands of the Japanese premier pair, Messrs. Honda and Akiyama. The Japanese players were five games to three up in the final set and the score reached five games all when the match was abandoned owing to failing light.

The match was noteworthy for the first time display put up by Honda and Akiyama, the latter especially being notable for some excellent work. He bore the greater part of the play at the beginning but rose to the occasion and refused to be beaten. The Indians found his lobbing troublesome. Honda was none too good at the start but he improved as the game progressed and showed great accuracy.

The Rumjahns were erratic and especially was this noticeable in the play of S. A. Rumjahn who hit the ball outside or into the net too often, while his general all round play did not come up to the form he displayed last year. H. D. Rumjahn lost points on his service but was clever with his volleying and gave the better exhibition of the two.

The games were exceedingly well fought out and at the end of four sets the couples had each won two. The fifth set reached the score of five games each when the match was abandoned.

In a game of straight sets E. C. Fincher beat S. E. Green in the Open Singles, while G. W. Sewell beat E. D. Lawrence in the Club Championship. This qualifies Sewell to meet Green in the semi-final.

The Results.

The full results were:
Open Singles—E. C. Fincher beat S. E. Green, 6-2, 7-5, 6-4.

Open Doubles—S. A. and H. D. Rumjahn v T. Honda and T. Akiyama, 6-8, 7-5, 2-6, 6-1, 6-5 (unfinished).

Club Championship—G. W. Sewell beat E. D. Lawrence 6-4, 6-2.

Handicap Singles—"A"—D. B. Green (rec. 2/6), beat W. D. Fildes Wilson (rec. 5/10), 6-3, 6-4. G. F. H. Blehard (rec. 2/6) beat G. C. Stark (rec. 4/10), 7-5, 6-3.

LORD CURZON'S GENIUS.

HIGH SENSE OF DUTY.

'SUPERIORITY' MYTH EXPLODED.

The life of Lord Curzon. Being the Authorised Biography of George Nathaniel Marquess Curzon of Kedleston, K.G. By the Right Hon. the Earl of Ronaldshay. Illustrated, Vol. I. Ernest Benn. 21s. net.

Reviewed by E. B. Osborn in the London Morning Post.

Sulla was called Felix because he was felicitous in his career even to the extent of having a fine day for his funeral. The epithet was applied to the late Lord Curzon because he was fortunate, especially in his youth and early manhood; and his good fortune lasted even later than Sulla's, since Lord Ronaldshay was chosen to write his biography.

No happier choice could have been made for his biographer than the Earl of Ronaldshay, who, at heart, as he himself had to the end of his days, and possesses, as he did, a style of scholarly distinction and capable on high occasions of that eloquent enthusiasm which is to the reader a noble contagion.

Moreover, Lord Ronaldshay has given us a faithful portrait of the man's personality, often perplexed and seldom at peace with himself—not one of those lifeless, glaring wax-works, pranked with purple patches, which are commonly presented in "official" biographies and resemble the image of the dead carried in a Roman funeral. This is a living book about a living man, and more concerned with his character than with his career. It might be the work, so various and vivacious it is, of an English Ludwig.

The Mythical Man.

The Curzon of popular legend was perhaps the real man's worst enemy. It was a creation of the undergraduate democracy of Oxford which saw in the lofty young Etonian—an ideal aristocrat, according to a temporary student from Missouri—a caricature of Aristotle's Great-Souled Man. It began with a parody of a very feeble love-song written by Curzon himself for a terminal magazine of Oxford poetry, of which the second stanza was:

I used in those days to say, Mary, That the girl I should claim as my own, Provided she'd not say me nay, Mary, Would be one that I had not then known.

The original parody, afterwards much improved on, appeared in the "Balliol Masque," a collection of rhymes mainly by J. W. Mackail and H. C. Beeching on Dons and prominent undergraduates of the day. It ran, or, rather, crawled as follows:

I am a most superior person, Mary, My name is George N-th-n-i C-r-z-n, Mary, I'll make a speech on any political question of the day, Mary, Provided you'll not say me nay, Mary, The final form, attributed to Cecil Spring Rice, brings in other personal details:

My name is George Nathaniel Curzon, I am a most superior person, My cheek is pink, my hair is sleek, I dine at Blenheim once a week.

Strict Governor.

His oratory at the Union—aggressive, self-confident, tending to wordiness and prolixity, satirical towards opponents, a little overbearing—seems to have provoked this picturesque libel. A casual observer (not quoted by Lord Ronaldshay) defined him as "a prodigious prize, dressed in platitudes and perorations."

In his complex personality, however, his friends, who knew him too well to mistake ambition for arrogance, found no trace of superiority or priggishness. He was conscious of mental disabilities which, combined with constant physical suffering, always courageously overcome, bred in him a secret sense of insufficiency, to which Lord Ronaldshay applies the Freudian term "inferiority complex."

As a child he did not enjoy un-mixed happiness. He was dominated, and at times daunted, by a strange and forceful influence in the governess, a fine teacher, who for ten years had charge of him and the four members of the family next to him in age. She was devoted to her pupils, yet acted at times with all the savagery of a brutal and vindictive tyrant, and the many ingenious punishments she devised were such that Lord Curzon doubted if any children well born and well placed ever cried so much and so justly!

Yet when he died in 1892 he, then a member of the Government, was a conspicuous mourner at her grave. By a strange coincidence, when he went to school at Wixenford, he passed under the control of another strong teacher, as violent and unstable in disposition as his governess, who was often savage and cruel to his boys.

His Beloved Eton.

It is in childhood—as we now know far better than our parents did—that personality is made or marred. No doubt, as Lord Ronaldshay suggested, Lord Curzon's weaknesses of temperament originated in this formative period. When he found release in the kindly and tolerant atmosphere of his beloved Eton, where he had a happy six years ("perhaps the happiest and most glorious that it will ever be given me to enjoy," he wrote) he could not throw off the sense of strain and stress which had vexed his early years. A suppressed rebelliousness marked his relations with his teachers; his only real friend among them seems to have been Oscar Browning, who could allow for his waywardness and saw in him a fine historian in the making. He loved to "score off" well-meaning pedagogues; thus he astonished and annoyed the French and Italian masters with whom he had fallen out, by winning the Prince Consort's Prizes for French and for Italian.

His scholastic success both at Eton and Oxford were gained, not by steady, continuous work, but by "orgies of nocturnal reading" (to use his phrase to a friend), which started his lifelong habit of sitting up too late.

As time went on, the extraordinary sensitivity—none other than that of the typical artistic temperament—which was really his ruling characteristic, caused him to look, Janus-like, with two faces on the world around him. In public he seemed cold, inaccessible, haughty—thus he prevented mere acquaintances from seeing when he was hurt or guessing at his constant need of spiritual help. He never embarked on any undertaking, however trivial, without a prayer.

When, however, he was among intimate friends, he laid aside this protective armour of manner, let himself go, and was a very Bohemian in his exuberant vivacity. In Chapter X, ("Social Interests") Lord Ronaldshay tells us how, as a member of the Crabbet Club (named from the late Wilfred Scawen Blunt's house in Sussex) he rejoiced in wise foolishness.

"They (the members)," wrote the late George Wyndham in 1890, "meet to play lawn tennis, the piano, the fool, and other instruments. . . . You will find young Radicals and Tories, amateurs of poetry and many sports. The President presides at dinner in the costume of an Arab Sheik, and produces sonnets and shrewd observations on man and nature."

"The Souls" (originally called "The Gang" by its members) was a still more famous example of the occasional symposium. The members played literary games; they talked of all the 'ices and 'lams with equal zest in what might be called the spiritual altogether. "There is a diablerie about Mr. Curzon's dialogue," declared a witness, "and a disregard for the personal sensitiveness of others, which sometimes brings upon him the rebukes of his fellow souls."

Studies in Statecraft.

These "Souls" (or "Gangsters") were idlers, and the hardest worker of all was Curzon himself. This first volume of his biography deals with the forty years from his birth in 1859 to his appointment as Viceroy of India in 1898. It is a wonderful record of unremitting and thorough work, which includes the great series of journeys that occupied him almost continuously between 1883 and 1895—two voyages round the world, and expeditions into Central Asia, Persia, the Pamirs, and Afghanistan—and his brief, but brilliant, career in the House of Commons.

The tremendous amount of work involved in his travels, and the writing of the three great travel-books in accordance with his high ideals of style and historical accuracy, is all the more amazing when we take into account the lifelong physical suffering of which he wrote in a letter to Mrs. Lettice, whom he married:

"I am supposed to seek the foot-lights. Little do they know what a business it is to get me on to the stage. How many of them, I wonder, have any idea of the long hours spent in bed, of the aching back, of the incessant nerve strain in the leg, of the fearful steel cage in which I have to be incased when I undergo any strain in which standing up is involved. They think me strong and arrogant and self-sufficient. Little do they reckon that it is an invalid addressing them, who has only been driven to the duty because it is a duty."

Thoroughness.

Ambition drove him to these arduous tasks, but a sense of patriotic duty—of the necessity of preparing himself for a statesman's role, for his country's sake—kept him occupied with them until they were completely accomplished. Thoroughness and enthusiasm were the characteristics of this student of real statecraft, who sought in first-hand investigations of facts a corrective control of that dangerous command of language against which Jowett warned him.

His love of thoroughness made him a discomfortable chief for his subordinates, who were also troubled by those occasional visitations of hysteria, which even caused him in later life to shed tears at a Cabinet meeting.

But the man's strength was himself, his weaknesses but incidental and imposed. Such is the chief lesson of the first volume of a memorable biography, which ignores the conventions of the old in-memoriam memoirs.

PORTUGUESE INTERPORT YESTERDAY.

Yesterday on the H.K.F.C. ground, Hongkong played Macao in the final game of the Portuguese Interport fixtures and won by the large margin of eight goals to one.

Hongkong fielded the same side that beat Shanghai, Macao made one change in the team that played Shanghai on the King's Park ground, but Silva replacing Moio at left back.

Half an hour after the advertised time, Guaroire kicked off for Macao. Hongkong forced a corner, but A. Gosano, shot over the bar, Rosa saved from Assumpcao. Macao then got going and from a centre by Lopes, Guaroire shot over. Rosa saved from a header by Rocha and B. Gosano sent over, Rocha netting from close range.

Rocha gave Silva a good opening but he shot wide.

From a centre by B. Gosano, de Silva turned the ball to the centre and Rocha unmarked sent the ball into the net.

A run by Colaca on the left ended with the ball being put behind. Silva sent forward and A. Gosano running in scored with a well placed shot. Brown sent over from the wing and Rosa came out to clear. A. Gosano shot over. Lopes beat Souza and shot hard, Fernandez bringing off a fine save. Assumpcao sent the ball across to the right, B. Gosano returned and A. Gosano headed the fourth goal for Hongkong.

Macao got through but the forwards dallied inside the goal area and Davies cleared. Hongkong forced a couple of corners Silva eventually shooting over the bar. At the interval, Hongkong were leading by four goals to nil.

Resuming, Hongkong attacked. Rocha running in to meet a forward pass by Souza, met the ball and netted. Play fell off, Hongkong continuing pressed and during a scramble following a corner kick, A. A. Remedios scored the sixth goal.

Brown sent across and Gosano turned the ball into the net, giving Hongkong a seven goal lead. Several corners fell to Hongkong and Gosano scored the eighth goal from a pass by Silva. Just on final, B. Rosa scored for Macao. Final Hongkong 8, Macao 1.

GERMAN ECONOMY IN THE YEAR 1927.

Viewed from an economic angle, the year 1927 has been the most favourable since the war. Industrial production has experienced a marked increase. The coal output, for instance, up to the end of November totalled 104.4 million tons in the corresponding period of the previous year. Iron and steel have also been produced in augmented quantities, the figures having increased from 9.6 mill. and 12.3 mill. in the year 1926 to 13.1 mill. and 16.3 mill. in 1927.

In general there has been a satisfactory development in the earnings of industrial enterprises. The improvement in the economic situation is best reflected in the employment returns. At the middle of January, 1927, the number of out-of-work figures had been reduced to 442,000, followed, it is true, by an increase reaching to 1 million at the turn of the year.

Agriculture also showed some improvement. The crops of bread-grain amounted to 10,250,000 tons comparing with about 9,000,000 tons in 1926. A further indication of the general betterment is to be found in the continued rise of wages and in a certain rise of the price curve such as commonly accompanies an improvement in trade. The foreign-trade returns—namely imports valuing 14.1 milliard R. M. and exports 10.2 milliards—reveal the fact that the improvement in the economic situation is due mainly to a better home market. There was truly, an increase in exports; thus, the monthly average in 1925 was 733 mill. R. M., in 1926 815 mill. and in 1927 862 mill.; still, this ratio of increase is small as compared with the general curve of trade.

Weak Point.

But this is just the weak point in German economy. Exports have not revived in the degree requisite to meet the circumstances in which the country is placed. Even now they are still 25 per cent. behind the pre-war figures, while the imports have already surpassed those of 1914. Germany cannot even pay for her imports with the amount of her exports; how then is she to pay off her reparation burden? The adverse balance in her trade had to be met last year by borrowing abroad. While, however, to cover its requirements, German economy will remain dependent to a large extent upon imported foreign capital, there are evidences of slow but steady progress in the accumulation of home funds. The importation of foreign exchange in 1927 may be computed at about 4½ milliard marks. The lively discussion concerning the Dawes Plan which took place

CAR RECOVERED.

PRACTICAL JOKE ON THE OWNER.

The reported theft of motor car No. 705 belonging to Captain Evers from his residence in Stubbs Road proved to be no more than a practical joke played on the car-owner.

It will be recalled that a report was made to the police by Captain Evers to the effect that on Friday night at 10.30 p.m. he left his car outside his house in Stubbs Road and on emerging from the house half an hour later the car had mysteriously disappeared.

It now transpires that a garage received a telephone message and was instructed to tow away a car which had broken down in Stubbs Road. Men were accordingly sent to Stubbs Road and the car outside Captain Evers' residence was removed in due course—hence its mysterious disappearance.

DISESTABLISHMENT.

NO STATE RELIGION IN TURKEY.

Constantinople, Apr. 10.

The National Assembly at Angora has unanimously approved the bill separating Church and State—Rekter.

In a message dated the 6th, this action was forecast, as the motion to that effect was supported by 120 deputies. The result of the modifications will be that Islam will no longer be the State religion, and that the Deputies and President of the Republic will no longer take the customary oath in the name of Allah, but on their honour.]

In the press of various countries during the closing weeks of the year has been watched with calm in Germany. People are agreed here that the amount of the reparations must be definitively fixed in order that German economy may know the burden which it has to bear. The decisive factor in the matter is the curve of the exports, which, for the moment at any rate, does not suggest the feasibility of any considerable payments. Even in the relatively favourable year 1927, the basic problem of German economy remained unsolved, namely, how to find adequate markets for the products of an industry whose capacity has been essentially extended.

NEW AMERICAN SERIAL

GIRL ALONE

By ANNE AUSTIN.
Author of "Saint and Sinner."

"Won't you sing 'Always' for me, Sally?"

SYNOPSIS.

Just before SALLY FORD, 16, who knows no other home but the state orphanage from the time she is four, prepares to go to CLEM CARSON'S farm to work for the summer, she persuades MISS POND, sentimental office helper, to tell her about her mother. The girl is crushed to learn her mother has never returned after placing her in the orphanage. Sally goes to her new home with crushed pride. There she sees a handsome young man whom they call DAVID and who she learns is a student of scientific farming and star athlete, working during the summer months. In the house she meets PEARL, the gaudily dressed, pumpered daughter of the Carsons. Pearl crudely warns Sally, "Hands off David—he's mine!" After supper Pearl begs David to join a party of dancers who are coming to the farm house, but he declines. When Sally hears the dancers downstairs later in the evening, she is seized with a sudden desire to join them and, donning her best dress, tiptoes to the stairs. There her courage fails. She hears a voice behind her: "Want to dance?" She turns. It is David.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.
CHAPTER VII

At 11 o'clock that Saturday night Sally Ford blew out the flame in the small kerosene lamp—the electric light wires had not been brought to the garret—and then knelt beside the low cot bed to pray, as she had been taught to do in the orphanage.

After she had kneed mechanically through her childish "Now-I-lay-me," she lifted her small face, that gleamed pearl-white in the faint moonlight, and clasping her thin little hands tightly, spoke in a low, passionate voice directly to God, whom she imagined bending his majestic head to listen:

"Oh, thank you, God, for making David like me, and for letting me dance with him. And if dancing is a sin, please forgive me, God, for I didn't mean any harm. And please make Pearl not hate me so much just because David is sweet to me. She has so many friends and a father and mother and a grandmother and a nice home and so many pretty clothes, while I haven't anything. Make her feel kinder toward me, dear God, and I'll work so hard and be so good! And please, God, keep my heart and body pure, like Mrs. Stone says."

Lying in bed, covered only with the scant night-gown she had brought from the orphanage, Sally did not feel the oppressive heat nor the hardness and lumpiness of her corn-shuck mattress. For she was re-living the hour she had spent in the Carson living room, sponsored by a stern-faced David who seemed determined to force Pearl and her giggling, chattering friends to accept the timid little orphan as an equal.

She felt again the pain in her heart at their veiled insults, their deliberate snubs, the concentrated fury that gleamed at her from Pearl's pale blue eyes. But again, as during that hour, the hurt was healed by the blessed fact of David's championship. She lay very still to recapture the bliss of David's arm about her waist, as he whirled her lightly in a fox trot, the music for which came so mysteriously from a little box with dials and a horn like a phonograph. She heard again his precious compliment, spoken loudly enough for Pearl to hear: "You're the best dancer I ever danced with, Sally. I'm going to ask you to the Junior Prom next year."

Of course he had danced with Pearl, too, and with the other girls, who had made eyes at him and angled for compliments on their own dancing. When he danced with Pearl, her husky young body pressed closely against his, her finger-tips audaciously brushed the golden crispness of his hair. She had even tried to dance cheek-to-cheek with David, but he had held back stiffly.

The other boys—Ross Willis and Purdy Bates—had not asked Sally to dance with them, after Pearl had whispered half-audible, fierce commands; but their rudeness had no power to still the little song of thanksgiving that trilled in her heart, for always David came back to her, looking glad and relieved, and it was with her that David sat between dances, talking steadily and entertainingly, to hide her shy silences.

She signed in memory, a quivering sigh of pure pleasure, when she lived again the minutes in the kitchen when she and David had washed glasses and plates, while the others danced in the parlor. They had not returned, but together had slipped up the back stairs to the garret, David bidding her a cheerful good-night as he turned into his own room to study for an hour before going to bed.

She had learned, during these talks with David, that he was 20 years old, that he had completed two years' work in the State Agricultural and Mechanical College; that he was working summers on farms as much for the practical experience as for the money earned, for his ambition was to be a scientific farmer, so that he might make the most of the farm which he would some day inherit from his grandfather. His grandfather's place adjoined the Carson farm, but it was being worked "on shares" by a large family of brothers who had no need for David's labour in the summer. She knew, too, from his modest replies to questions asked by Ross Willis and Purdy Bates, that David was a star athlete, that he had already won his letter in football and that he had been boxing champion of the sophomore class. Marvellous David!

"But he likes me," Sally exulted. "He likes me better than Pearl or Beattie Coates or Sue Mullins. I suppose," she added honestly, "he's sorry for me because I'm an orphan and Pearl has it 'in' for me, but I don't care why he's nice to me, just so he is."

The radio music stopped at half-past eleven. Soon afterward Sally heard the shouted good-nights of Pearl's guests: "We had a swell time, Pearl!" "Don't forget, Pearl! Our house tomorrow night!" "See you at Sunday School, Pearl, and bring David with you! Some sheik! Oh, Mama! But watch out for that baby-faced orphan, Pearl! She's got her cap set for him and she'll beat your time, if you don't look out!"

Sally felt her face flame with shame and anger. Why did girls and boys have to be so nastyminded, she asked herself with a sob. Why couldn't they let her and David be friends without thinking things like that? Why, David was so—so wonderful! He wouldn't "look" at a frightened little girl from an orphan's home! No girl was good enough for David Nash, she told herself fiercely.

The next morning Pearl failed to entice David into going to church and Sunday School with her, and Sally was left alone to prepare the big Sunday dinner—Mrs. Carson having gone to church in spite of her Saturday determination not to. David came smiling into the kitchen, immaculate in a white short and well-fitting grey flannel trousers, a book in his hand, a pipe in his mouth.

"Mind if I study out here on the kitchen porch?" he asked Sally, his hazel eyes brimming with friendliness. "I like company and my garret room's hot as an inferno."

"I'd love to have you," Sally told him shyly. "I'll try not to make any noise with the cooking utensils."

"Oh, I don't mind noise," he laughed. "Fact is, I wish you'd sing. I'll bet you sing even when you're talking. And any woman—a delicate compliment—that 'can work better when she's singing.'"

And so Sally sang. She sang Sunday School songs, because it was Sunday.

It was sweet to be alone in the kitchen, with David so near, his crisp, golden-brown head bent over his book, smoke spiraling lazily from his pipe. The old grandmother, looking very tiny and old-fashioned in rustling black tulle, had gone to church, too, leaving the middle-aged half-wit son by the hand. Benny had strained at his mother's hand, trying to get loose so that he could kiss Sally and show her his bright red necktie, at which the fingers of his free hand plucked excitedly. As she remembered those vacant, grinning eyes, that slack, grinning mouth, Sally's song changed to a heart-felt psalm of thanksgiving:

"Count your blessings!
Name them one by one.
Count your many blessings—
See what God hath done!"

Oh, she was blessed! She had a good mind; sometimes she was pretty; she could dance and sing; children liked her—and David, David! Poor half-wit Benny, whose only blessings were a dim little old mother and a new red necktie! But wasn't a mother even an old, old mother, whose own eyes were vague, such a big blessing that she made up for nearly everything else that God could give?

But she resolutely banished the ache in her heart—an ache that contracted it sharply every time she thought of the mother she had never known—and began to sing again:

"I think when I read that sweet story of old,
When Jesus was here among men,
How He called little children as lambs to His fold—"

The opening and closing of the door startled her, David was there, smiling at her.

"Won't you sing 'Always' for me, Sally? It's a new song, just out. It goes something like this—"

And he began to hum, breaking into words now and then: "I'll be loving you—always! Not for just an hour, not for just a day, not—"

"So this is why you wouldn't go to church with me!" a shrill voice, passionate with anger, broke into the singing lesson.

They had not heard her, in their absorption in the song and in each other, but Pearl had come into the house through the front door, and was confronting them now in the doorway between dining room and kitchen.

QUEEN'S THEATRE.

"SILK STOCKINGS" QUITE AMUSING.

There are many piquant situations in "Silk Stockings," the amusing film now showing at the Queen's Theatre. It is a Universal picture, admirably produced, and a bright and entertaining theme has been worked out from the discovery in a young husband's pocket of a pair of ladies' silk stockings. The Divorce Court eventually figures in the story, and it is here that Laura la Plante is responsible for some really clever acting. There is a deal of farce in the story, but the film is worth seeing as a relief from the seriousness of life.

Included in the programme is a good news reel, which, amongst other items, shows Costes and Lebriz in the States, and a breezy comedy, "Crazy to Fly."

There will be no movie performance in the Queen's at 5 p.m. today, as Miss Daisy O'Keefe's pupils are giving a dancing display at that time, but the 2.30, 7.15 and 9.20 movie performances will be held as usual.

"The system of Travellers' Cheques was originated in 1891 by the American Express Company with the object of creating a form of travel currency which would give the holder the security of a letter of credit and at the same time the convenience of local currency. The Company registered the cheques under the trade name of 'AMERICAN EXPRESS TRAVELLERS' CHEQUES' the word 'Travellers' being spelled with one 'l'. The advantage of the Cheques was so apparent that other banking institutions adopted the system."

CHINESE FACULTY.

MERCHANTS TO RAISE
MILLION DOLLARS.

For the purpose of discussing the maintenance of the Chinese Faculty in the Hongkong University, a meeting of prominent Chinese merchants was called at the Chinese Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning, at 11 o'clock, by the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotevall and Sir Shou-son Chow. There was a large attendance, including Mr. Li Yau-tsun, Mr. Wong Kwong-tin, Dr. S. W. Tso, Mr. Lee Koon-chun, Mr. Lee Jor-shan, Mr. T. N. Chau, Mr. Li Yick-mul, Mr. Fung Ping-shan, Mr. Kwok Shu-lau, Mr. Chau Tung-sang, Mr. Tang Shu-kin, Mr. Leung Pat-ye and Mr. Tang Che-ong.

In his opening speech, Sir Shou-son Chow, after stressing the need for the Chinese Faculty, explained that some time ago Professor Lai Che-hai of the Hongkong University, succeeded in collecting from among the rich Chinese in the Straits Settlements a sum of $40,000 for the Chinese Faculty but this sum had now been expended and if a full Chinese Faculty, which covers a course of four years study, was to be established, there would be a much larger amount would have to be raised.

The speaker added that although the Government had unofficially promised to give the Chinese Faculty substantial aid, it was up to the merchants to do their part.

After the Hon. Dr. Kotevall had spoken, the meeting decided to try to raise a sum in the neighbourhood of $1,000,000 about $50,000 of which will be assigned to the erection of a building in the University grounds for the Chinese Faculty.

The forty-one Chinese present formed themselves into a Committee to collect the necessary funds. Mr. Fung Ping-shan has promised to contribute $5,000 and Mr. Kwok Shu-lau $1,000.

OPIUM SEIZURES.

CONTRABAND CARRIED BY RIVER PASSENGERS.

Revenue Officers were particularly active yesterday afternoon in searching passengers from Canton by the Kinsan and Yuet On, were successful in making considerable hauls of narcotics.

By the Kinsan, a traveller came down with a black suit case and stated he had nothing to declare. Suspicion being aroused by the depth of the case's bottom, a penknife was inserted and when withdrawn was found to be smeared with opium. The baggage was in the possession of a street coolie, who had been in turn summoned by a wharf coolie after having been engaged by the passenger himself.

All three are now held in custody and will appear before the magistrate this morning. The amount of the seizure is understood to be about 51 taels of prepared opium.

In the other case, a passenger by the Yuet On came ashore without baggage, but being searched, was found to have a fair amount of opium concealed in the top of his socks. He also was arrested and will appear before the Court today.

RUBBER POLICY.

DIVERGENT VIEWS IN SINGAPORE.

Singapore, Apr. 10.

There are divergent views as to the policy the rubber growers should adopt in consequence of the impending abolition of restriction. Some point out the danger of tapping all out and piling up stock to flood the market when restriction ceases.

Other authorities believe the estates should mark time in expectation that the industry will reorganise itself and some scheme be evolved which will put the market on firm ground and bring back prices to a remunerative level.

TUG & LIGHTER COMPANY'S DEVELOPMENT.

A development of the Hongkong Tug and Lighter Company's activities, which has so far passed unnoticed and yet which fills a long felt want, is the work of the Baggage Department.

This is comparatively a new departure, but in the short time it has been operating, the business done has shown a steady increase. It is concerned with the engagement of coolies to transport baggage and luggage from ships to hotels, the collecting of luggage from residences for transfer to steamers, storage and handling of cargo up to any amount, with delivery ex-ship to business premises if necessary; all these and other removals are handled at a minimum of cost and with expedition.

The advantages are obvious. A representative of the Company meets all incoming steamers and arranges on the spot for removal of baggage to any point at a standard rate. Passengers are saved an immense amount of trouble, are not subjected to the extortionate demands of unreliable loaders on the waterfront and are assured of safe handling.

The leading steamship lines have entered into an arrangement with the Tug and Lighter Company in respect of baggage and other removals, the staff of this special department being so constituted as to be available for the heaviest shipments at short notice.

All these contemplating removal to new premises or returning home might well ring up Central 3639 with a view to engaging the services of this organisation, which is in truth a trouble and money saver to the harassed traveller from point to point.

As an indication of the volume of business now done, it is stated that coolie hire for the last month alone was in excess of $6,000.

JUNKS PIRATED.

ATTACKED IN CHEUNG
CHOW WATERS.

Four pirates, one armed with a dagger and one with a revolver, succeeded in boarding two Chinese fishing boats under cover of the dark early yesterday morning near Cheung Chow.

According to the story told by the owner of one of the craft in his report to the Police, his vessel containing eight persons was anchored off Cheung Chow along side another fishing boat, and he was aroused by the noise of someone creeping at the side of his boat. It turned out to be two strangers. One of them pushed him into the hold.

Meanwhile the rest of the gang attacked and fired several shots at the other junk, which they eventually boarded and ransacked, taking money amounting to about $13.

Another Piracy.
News of another piracy was brought to Hongkong by the master of cargo junk No. 32500 yesterday afternoon, when a report was made to the police of an attack made by six armed men on a junk at 3 p.m. yesterday.

According to the master, the junk was boarded while it was in Lung Shan Wan in the Sai Kung district, at a point very close to British waters. The pirates fired at the junk, commanding them to stop. The order was complied with and the men then boarded and ransacked the vessel, taking with them $940 in money also other property to a total value of $1040.

The pirates appeared to be in possession of both long and short firearms. They left the boat as soon as they found the money and were last seen making off towards Long Kuet district, near Sai Kung.

FLYERS' SECOND
LONG HOP.

REACH CALCUTTA AFTER A FLIGHT TO HANOI.

FRENCH PROGRESS.

A Reuter message from Calcutta, dated yesterday, states that the two French airmen, Costes and Lebrun have arrived there from Hanoi.

They have therefore flown from Tokyo to Calcutta in two hops. Leaving Tokyo on Sunday at 7.23 a.m. they accomplished the 2,500 mile flight to Hanoi in just over 33 hours, reaching Hanoi at 4.45 p.m. on Monday.

Their second hop from Hanoi to Calcutta was one of about 1,100 miles and it is presumed that they flew over Annam, Burmah, Assam and so into Bengal.

The message from Calcutta is timed 7.55 p.m. on Tuesday and it may be presumed that the French flyers left Hanoi early in the morning and accomplished the journey to Calcutta by early evening.

Before coming east the two airmen flew from France across the Southern Atlantic and up and across the United States. They then travelled by steamer to Tokyo.

At the moment there is no news regarding the next hop from Calcutta, but it is understood that Costes and Lebrun will eventually return to Paris.

RUBBER FACTORY
FIRE.

DAMAGE OF THREE LAKHS OF DOLLARS.

THIRD BIG OUTBREAK.

Singapore, Apr. 8. The third rubber factory fire within a few weeks—bringing the total value of rubber lost by fire in Singapore during this period well within the neighbourhood of a million dollars—occurred yesterday morning.

The scene was the 6½ mile, Thomson Road, the premises of the Chop Kian Heng Long rubber factory. When the Fire Brigade arrived the pillars and the debris of what had been a three-storied rubber factory was being fast consumed by a fiercely raging fire that had apparently been in progress "for some considerable time" in the words of one of the Brigade officers.

There was danger of the outbreak spreading to a neighbouring village, an eventually that would have produced a conflagration of the dimensions of the great Geylang fire of a couple years ago, and the firemen worked hard to confine the fire to the factory.

The first intimation the Singapore Fire Brigade had of the occurrence, was a message at 1.30 a.m. on Sunday from the Fort Canning Signal Station that a glare was visible in the sky near Sea View. It was while ringing up the Exchange to ascertain if they had had a report of a fire that one of the European officers received the information from Telephone 1446.

A fire engine and a tender reached the scene at 1.45 a.m. The only source of a water supply was a stream on the estate, and it was only after nine hours hard work that the fire was completely put out.

According to two Indian watchmen on duty at the factory the fire began at 1 a.m. One of these men states that he saw a fire on the second floor and as he was going to call the Chinese "kran", there was a loud explosion, and the next few moments the second floor was well alight.

The loss is stated to amount to $300,000, which is covered by insurance. The building did not belong to the company.

NEW AUTOMATIC SYSTEM.

lay must perforce occur, apart from which the process involves heavy capital expenditure. I think shareholders will agree, however, that the resulting improved service fully justifies the expense entailed by such schemes. As a result of this programme, the number of complaints has been reduced to a low figure, notwithstanding that the number of subscribers' lines has been increased during the year by 711 exchange lines and 446 extension lines.

Taking the liabilities side of the balance sheet, you will observe that General Reserve stands at $75,000.00; therefore, if the appropriations recommended by the Board in respect of the year under review be adopted, this account will be in credit to the extent of $125,000.00.

On the assets side of the balance sheet, under General Plant, you will find an addition of $155,905.89, the major portion of which figure is represented by plant of a permanent nature, being in respect of the matter to which I have just referred, namely the expenditure on laying underground cables in substitution for overhead wires, a conversion which, under the terms of the Telephone Ordinance, must be carried out with reasonable expedition. In this respect you will no doubt be interested to know that 1,594.183 circuit miles of underground cable and 71,369 circuit miles of covered distribution cables were laid down during the year.

Automatic Phones.

Another item calling for special comment is Automatic Plant (Preliminary Expenses) which, you will observe, now stands at $65,960.85; and I am pleased to report that very material progress has been made since the last meeting in regard to the question of a new telephone system for Hongkong.

On your Directors' instructions, the Company's Manager proceeded to England in May, 1927, and in conjunction with our Consulting Engineers, Messrs. W. W. Cook & Partners, drew up specifications and invitations to tender for an automatic installation for Hongkong. Tenders were duly called for by our London Agents (the Oriental Telephone & Electric Co., Ltd.) and are now in the hands of the Board, who, I may add, are very satisfied with the results obtained.

Your Board are most anxious to modernise the exchange plant with a view to being in a position to supply a telephone service on the most up-to-date lines, and it is with pleasure, therefore, that I am in a position to state that a definite scheme has been submitted to the Government, whereby, subject to the Government's approval, it is hoped that the whole system will be converted to automatic working in less than two years from date. As stated in my speech in April, 1927, the matter mainly resolves itself into a question of initial outlay, and the subscription rates to be charged in order to effect a return on investment in the manner contemplated by the Telephone Ordinance, which, as you are aware, automatically provides for decreased subscription rates when the return on investment reaches a predetermined percentage on the paid-up capital of the Company.

Subscribers' Rates.

In this connexion it should be remembered that the Telephone Committee of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce in their Report of August, 1922, suggested a rate of $120 per exchange line for the year 1926, and, moreover, in fixing such rates the payment of a Royalty to Government of $4 per exchange line was not contemplated. I would call your attention to the fact that this Company has not hitherto applied for the higher rates recommended, although the telephone service has, in the meantime, been very considerably improved.

I now formally propose that the report of the Directors and the accounts for the financial year ended 31st December, 1927, as presented, be adopted, and that the following appropriations recommended by the Directors be confirmed:—Payment of a final dividend of 5% making 8% for the year, $36,130; transfer to General Reserve, $50,000; bonus to European staff, $8,109.98; bonus to operators, $4,384; to carry forward to next account, $7,016.47; and I shall be obliged if a shareholder will kindly second such proposal, whereupon questions as to the report and accounts may be raised.

Business Matters.

Mr. C. G. S. Mackie seconded, and the proposition was carried unanimously. On the proposition of Mr. E. M. Raymond seconded by Mr. D. H. Blake to the Directors of Mr. D. H. Blake in place of Mr. B. Lander Lewis, who

FORD PAYS VISIT TO

MAY PRODUCE POWER FROM REFUSE DUMP.

BRITAIN AND TRADE.

London, Apr. 10.

Mr. Henry Ford is revisiting London after sixteen years and in an interview he said he was investigating the possibilities of producing power from the big dump of London refuse at Dagenham which covers one third of the three hundred acres belonging to him.

Mr. Ford is confident that American prosperity will continue indefinitely. Machinery was the only thing to give real prosperity to Britain which, he considered, was still the centre of world trade.

Britain was able to manufacture better for the continent, India and other places than any other country. The same applied to tractors for Africa, Russia and elsewhere.

Mr. Ford said that the removal of the rubber restrictions would not affect his plans in Brazil. The Firestone interests had gone to look round Liberia. It was possible that they would never make a tyre for sale but would turn the whole product over to the manufacturers. —Reuter.

ed in connexion with the railway issue in Manchuria.

Though the belief is growing in some quarters that decisive measures will be adopted unless the Chinese change their present attitude the Government is known to be particularly anxious to avoid strong measures owing to the resulting reaction in China and also owing to the delicate position confronting the coming Diet session where such action would certainly be strongly assailed.

The issue has arisen over Makden's recent transfer of rolling stock from the Taonan-Nanganchi line to the Mukden-Hailu line against which Japan protested on the ground that the Taonan-Nanganchi line is the security of the Japanese loan to China.

Menace to Security.

The Government has ordered the dissolution of the Ronoto (extremist proletarian party) and two other extremist political organisations on the ground that their existence is a menace to security and order. The dissolution does not affect the two Ronoto members in the Diet. —Reuter.

resigned owing to ill health, was confirmed.

The appointments of Messrs. T. G. Weall and C.G.S. Mackie to the Directorate were confirmed on the proposal of Mr. D. Tolan seconded by Mr. W. J. Hawker.

The re-election to the Directorate of the chairman and the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, C.M.G., was proposed by Mr. D. Tolan, seconded by Mr. E. M. Raymond, and carried unanimously.

On the proposal of Mr. W. J. Hawker seconded by Mr. E. M. Raymond Messrs. Lowe Bingham and Matthews were re-elected as auditors.

The chairman announced that dividend warrants were ready and could be obtained on application at the Company's offices.

Other Directors present in addition to the chairman were Sir Shougen Chow, the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, C.M.G., Mr. R. G. Shevan, Mr. C. G. S. Mackie, Mr. J. H. Taggart, Mr. T. G. Weall and Mr. D. H. Blake; also Mr. J. P. Sherry, manager. Shareholders present were Messrs. E. M. Raymond, D. Tolan and W. J. Hawker.
